6. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders must accept and include the proposal specified in Clause 4 of this Article in the proposed agenda and content of the meeting, except for the case specified in Clause 5 of this Article. The proposal will be officially added to the agenda and content of the meeting if approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 19. Conditions for holding a General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders is held when the number of shareholders attending the meeting represents more than 50% of the total number of shares with voting rights.

2. In case there are not enough voters required as prescribed in Clause 1 of this Article, within thirty (30) minutes from the time of setting the opening of the meeting, the convener shall cancel the meeting. The General Meeting of Shareholders must be convened for the second time within thirty (30) days from the date of the first General Meeting of Shareholders. The second General Meeting of Shareholders shall only be held when the number of shareholders attending the meeting represents 33% or more of the total number of voting shares.

3. In case the second general meeting cannot be held due to the lack of sufficient voters as prescribed in Clause 2 of this Article, the notice of invitation to the third General Meeting of Shareholders must be sent within twenty (20) days from the date of the planned second general meeting, and in this case the meeting shall be held regardless of the number of shareholders or authorized representatives attending and shall be considered valid and have the right to decide all matters that the first General Meeting of Shareholders is expected to approve.

4. Only the General Meeting of Shareholders has the right to change the meeting agenda sent with the notice of invitation as prescribed in Clause 3, Article 18 of this Charter.

Article 20. Procedures for conducting meetings and voting at the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Before opening the General Meeting of Shareholders, the Company must carry out shareholder registration procedures and must carry out the registration until all shareholders entitled to attend the meeting are present and have registered in the following order:

a) When registering shareholders, the Company will issue each shareholder or authorized representative with voting rights a voting card, on which is stated the registration number, full name of the shareholder, full name of the authorized representative and the number of votes of that shareholder. The General Meeting of Shareholders discusses and votes on each issue in the agenda. Voting is conducted by voting in approve, disapprove, and abstain. At the General Meeting, the number of cards approved of the resolution is collected first, the number of cards in disapproval of the resolution is collected later, and finally the total number of votes approved or disapproved is counted to decide. The vote counting results are announced by the Chairman immediately before the closing of the meeting. The General Meeting elects those responsible for counting votes or supervising the counting of votes at the request of the Chairman. The number of members of the vote counting committee is decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders based on the request of the Chairman of the meeting;

b) Shareholders or authorized representatives of institutional shareholders or authorized persons who arrive after the meeting has opened shall be registered and shall have the right to vote immediately after registration. The chairperson shall not stop the meeting for latecomers to register; in this case, the validity of the contents previously voted upon shall not change.

2. The election of the Chairman, Secretary and Vote Counting Committee of the General Meeting of Shareholders is regulated as follows:

a) The General Meeting of Shareholders convened by the Board of Directors shall be chaired by the Chairman of the Board of Directors or by another member of the Board of Directors authorized to chair the meeting. In case the Chairman of the Board of Directors is absent or temporarily unable to work, the remaining members of the Board of Directors shall elect one of them to chair the meeting according to the majority principle. In case a Chairman cannot be elected, the Head of the Board of Supervisors shall direct the General Meeting of Shareholders to elect a Chairman of the meeting from among the attendees and the person with the highest number of votes shall be the Chairman of the meeting.

b) Except for the case specified in Point a of this Clause, the person who signs the summons for the General Meeting of Shareholders shall direct the General Meeting of Shareholders to elect the Chairman of the meeting and the person with the highest number of votes shall be the Chairman of the meeting;

c) The chairman appoints one or more people to act as meeting secretaries;

d) The General Meeting of Shareholders elects one or more people to the Vote Counting Committee at the request of the meeting chairman.

3. The agenda and content of the meeting must be approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders in the opening session. The agenda must clearly and specifically specify the time for each issue in the meeting agenda.

4. The chairman of the meeting has the right to take necessary and reasonable measures to conduct the General Meeting of Shareholders in an orderly manner, in accordance with the approved agenda and reflecting the wishes of the majority of attendees.

a) Arrange seating at the venue of the General Meeting of Shareholders;

b) Ensure safety for everyone present at meeting locations;

c) Create conditions for shareholders to attend (or continue to attend) the meeting.

The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders has the full right to change the above measures and apply all necessary measures. The measures applied may be to issue admission tickets or use other forms of selection.

5. The General Meeting of Shareholders discusses and votes on each issue in the agenda. Voting is conducted by Approve, Disapprove and Abstain. The vote counting results are announced by the chairman immediately before the closing of the meeting.

6. Shareholders or their authorized representatives arriving after the meeting has commenced may still register and have the right to vote immediately after registration; in this case, the validity of previously adopted resolutions remains unchanged.

7. The person convening the meeting or the Chairman of the General Meeting of Shareholders has the following rights:

a) Require all meeting attendees to submit to inspection or other reasonable, legal security measures;

b) Request competent authorities to maintain order at the meeting; expel those who do not comply with the chairman's authority, intentionally disrupt order, prevent the normal progress of the meeting or do not comply with security check requirements from the General Meeting of Shareholders.

8. The Chairman has the right to postpone a General Meeting of Shareholders with a sufficient number of registered attendees for no more than 03 working days from the date of the scheduled opening of the meeting and may only postpone the meeting or change the meeting location in the following cases:

- a) The meeting location does not have enough convenient seating for all attendees;
- b) The media at the meeting location does not ensure that shareholders attending the meeting can participate, discuss and vote;
- c) There are people attending the meeting who obstruct or disrupt order, and risk making the meeting not be conducted fairly and legally.

9. In case the chairman postpones or suspends the General Meeting of Shareholders contrary to the provisions of Clause 8 of this Article, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect another person from among the attendees to replace the chairman in conducting the meeting until its conclusion; all resolutions passed at that meeting shall be effective.

10. In case the Company applies modern technology to organize the General Meeting of Shareholders through online meetings, the Company is responsible for ensuring that shareholders attend and vote by electronic voting or other electronic forms as prescribed in Article 144 of the Law on Enterprises and Clause 3, Article 273 of Decree No. 155/ND-CP dated December 31, 2020 of the Government detailing the implementation of a number of articles of the Law on Securities.

a) Except for the case specified in Point b, Clause 9 of this Article, each member of the Board of Directors or authorized person present in person at a meeting of the Board of Directors shall have one vote;

b) A member of the Board of Directors shall not vote on contracts, transactions or proposals in which the member or a person related to the member has an interest and such interest conflicts or may conflict with the interests of the Company. A member of the Board shall not be counted in the quorum required to hold a meeting of the Board of Directors on decisions on which the member does not have the right to vote;

c) Pursuant to Point d, Clause 9 of this Article, when a problem arises in a meeting of the Board of Directors relating to the level of interests of a member of the Board of Directors or relating to the voting rights of a member and such problems are not resolved by the voluntary renunciation of the voting rights of that member of the Board of Directors, such problems shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting and the chairman's decision relating to all other members of the Board of Directors shall be final, except in cases where the nature or scope of interests of the relevant member of the Board of Directors has not been fully disclosed;

d) A member of the Board of Directors who benefits from a contract specified in Point a, b Clause 5 Article 44 of this Charter is considered to have a significant interest in that contract.

e) Supervisors and Company Directors who are not members of the Board of Directors have the right to attend Board of Directors meetings and have the right to discuss but not to vote.

10. Disclosure of benefits.

A member of the Board of Directors who directly or indirectly benefits from a contract or transaction that has been signed or is expected to be signed with the Company and knows that he has an interest in it, must disclose this interest at the first meeting of the Board of Directors to discuss and consider the signing of this contract or transaction. In case a member of the Board of Directors does not know that he or a related person has an interest at the time the contract or transaction is signed with the Company, this member of the Board of Directors must disclose the related interests at the first meeting of the Board of Directors held after this member knows that he or she has an interest or will have an interest in the related transaction or contract.

11. Majority voting.

The decision of the Board of Directors is approved if approved by the majority (over 50%) of the members attending the meeting. In case the number of votes for and against are equal, the final decision belongs to the side with the opinion of the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

12. Absentee voting.

Members who do not attend the meeting in person have the right to vote by written ballot, 1or other electronic means. The ballot must be placed in a sealed envelope and must be delivered to the Chairman of the Board of Directors at least one hour before the opening time. The ballot may only be opened in the presence of all attendees.

13. Online meetings or other meeting forms.

A meeting of the Board of Directors may be held by video conference between members of the Board of Directors when all or some of the members are in different locations provided that each member attending the meeting is able to:

a) Listen to each other Council member speaking at the meeting;

b) Communicate simultaneously with all attendees. Discussions and exchanges between members may be conducted directly by telephone or by other means of communication (including the use of such means at the time of adoption of the Charter or later) or by a combination of all these methods. For the purposes of this Charter, a member of the Board of Directors participating in such a meeting shall be considered "present" at that meeting. The place of a meeting held under this provision shall be the place where the largest group of members of the Board of Directors is assembled, or if there is no such group, the place where the Chairman of the meeting is present.

Decisions passed in a properly organized and conducted online meeting shall be effective immediately upon the conclusion of the meeting but must be confirmed by the signatures in the minutes of all members of the Board of Directors attending the meeting.

14. Written resolution.

A resolution in the form of a questionnaire is approved on the basis of the approval of the majority of the members of the Board of Directors with voting rights. This type of resolution has the same effect and value as a resolution passed by the members of the Board of Directors at a meeting convened and held in accordance with the usual practice.

15. Minutes of Board of Directors meeting.

The Chairman of the Board of Directors is responsible for sending the minutes of the Board meetings to the members and such minutes shall be considered as authentic evidence of the work conducted in such meetings unless there is an objection to the content of the minutes within 10 days from the date of sending. The minutes of the Board of Directors meetings shall be prepared in Vietnamese and may be prepared in a foreign language, containing the main contents in accordance with Article 158 of the Law on Enterprises and must be signed by all members of the Board of Directors attending the meeting and the person taking the minutes.

3. The salary and operating expenses of the Board of Supervisors shall be accounted for as the Company's business expenses in accordance with the provisions of the law on corporate income tax and other relevant legal regulations. These expenses must be disclosed as a separate item in the Company's annual financial statements.

Section 5

ELECTION OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

Article 42. Election of the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors

1. Common shareholders who voluntarily form a group that satisfies the prescribed conditions to nominate candidates for the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors must notify the shareholders attending the meeting no later than the opening of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The Company shall inform the attending shareholders about this information during the General Meeting of Shareholders.

2. Based on the number of members of the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors, shareholders or groups of shareholders specified in Clause 3, Article 12 of this Charter have the right to nominate one or more candidates for the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors in accordance with Clause 2, Article 25, and Clause 2, Article 36 of this Charter. If the number of candidates nominated by shareholders or shareholder groups is lower than the number they are entitled to nominate, the remaining candidates shall be nominated by the Board of Directors, the Board of Supervisors, and other shareholders.

3. Voting for members of the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors must be conducted using the equal and even cumulative voting method. Accordingly, each shareholder has a total number of votes equal to the total number of shares they own or represent, multiplied by the number of members to be elected to the Board of Directors or the Board of Supervisors. Shareholders have the right to allocate all or part of their total votes to one or more candidates.

4. Elected members of the Board of Directors or the Board of Supervisors shall be determined based on descending votes, starting from the candidate with the most votes until the required number of members, as stipulated in the Company's Charter, is reached. In case 02 or more candidates receive the same number of votes for the final position on the Board of Directors or the Board of Supervisors, a re-vote shall be conducted among those candidates or selection shall be made based on criteria specified in the election regulations.

5. If the first-round election does not elect the required number of members for the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors as stipulated, a second-round election shall be conducted among the remaining candidates from the first round. If the second round still does not meet the required number, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall decide whether to proceed with additional election. If the General Meeting of Shareholders cannot make a decision, the Chairperson of the meeting shall decide.

Section 6

RESPONSIBILITIES OF MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS, SUPERVISORS, CEO, AND OTHER EXECUTIVES

Article 43. Duty of Care

Members of the Board of Directors, Supervisors, the Director, and other executives are responsible for performing their duties, including those as members of the Board's subcommittees, with honesty and in a manner they believe to be in the best interests of the Company. They must exercise a level of care that a prudent person would typically apply when holding a similar position under comparable circumstances.

Article 44. Duty of Honesty and Avoidance of Conflicts of Interest

1. Members of the Board of Directors, Supervisors, the Director, and other executives must disclose any relevant interests in accordance with Article 164 of the Law on Enterprises and other applicable legal regulations.

2. Members of the Board of Directors, Supervisors, the Director, and other executives are not allowed to exploit business opportunities that could benefit the Company for personal purposes. Additionally, they must not use information obtained through their positions for personal gain or to serve the interests of any other organization or individual.

3. Members of the Board of Directors, the Board of Supervisors, the Director (General Director), and other managers are obligated to notify the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors in writing about transactions between the Company, its subsidiaries, or other companies in which the publicly traded Company holds more than 50% of charter capital, and themselves or their related persons as prescribed by law. For the aforementioned transactions approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders or the Board of Directors, the Company must disclose information about these resolutions in accordance with securities laws on information disclosure.

Members of the Board of Directors are not allowed to vote on transactions that provide benefits to themselves or their related persons, as stipulated by the Law on Enterprises and the Company's Charter.

4. Unless otherwise decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders, the Company is not allowed to grant loans or provide guarantees to members of the Board of Directors, the Board of Supervisors, the Director, other executives, or individuals and organizations related to these members, or to legal entities in which these individuals have financial interests. Exceptions apply in cases where the public company and the organization related to this member are part of the same corporate group or operate within a group structure, including parent-subsidiary companies, economic groups, and specialized law has other provisions.

5. A contract or transaction between the Company and one or more members of the Board of Directors, the Board of Supervisors, the Director, other executives, or persons related to them—including companies, partners, associations, or organizations of which members of the Board of Directors, Supervisors, Directors of the Company and other executives or their related persons are members or have financial interests—shall not be deemed invalid in the following cases:

a) For contracts/transactions valued at less than 35% of the total assets value recorded in the most recent financial statement, the important contents of the contract or transaction, as well as the relationships and interests of the members of the Board of Directors, Supervisors, Director, and other executives, must have been reported to the Board of Directors. At the same time, the Board of Directors has honestly allowed the implementation of such contract or transaction by the votes of the Board members who have no related interests;

b) For contracts/transactions with a value greater than or equal to 35% or transactions resulting in a transaction value arising within 12 months from the date of the first transaction with a value of 35% or more of the total asset value recorded in the most recent financial report, the important contents of the contract or transaction as well as the relationships and interests of the members of the Board of Directors, Supervisors, Directors, and other executives have been announced to shareholders with no relevant interests who have the right to vote on that issue, and those shareholders have approved this contract or transaction;

c) For contract/ transaction is deemed by an independent consulting organization to be fair and reasonable in all aspects related to the shareholders of the Company at the time the transaction or contract is approved or ratified by the Board of Directors or the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Members of the Board of Directors, Supervisors, Directors of the Company and other executives and those related to the above members shall not use information that has not been permitted to be disclosed by the Company or disclose it to others to carry out related transactions.

Article 45. Liability for Damages and Compensation

1. Liability for damages.

Members of the Board of Directors, Supervisors, the Company's Director, and other executives who violate their obligations, or fail to fulfill their duties with honesty, diligence, and professional competence shall be held liable for any damages caused by their violations.

2. Compensation.

The Company shall indemnify individuals who are, were, or may become a party to any claims, lawsuits, or legal proceedings (including civil, administrative cases, and cases where the Company is not the plaintiff) if they have served or are serving as members of the Board of Directors, Supervisors, Directors, other executives, employees, or authorized representatives of the Company, or if they have acted at the Company's request in such capacities. This indemnification is granted on the condition that the individual has acted honestly, prudently, and diligently in the best interests of or without conflict against the Company's interests, in compliance with the law, and there is no evidence proving a breach of their responsibilities.

When performing their functions, duties, or carrying out tasks authorized by the Company, members of the Board of Directors, Supervisors, other executives, employees, or authorized representatives of the Company shall be indemnified by the Company if they become involved in claims, lawsuits, or legal proceedings (excluding cases where the Company is the plaintiff) in the following circumstances:

a) Acted honestly, prudently, and diligently for the benefit of the Company and without conflict with the Company's interests;

b) Complied with the law and there is no evidence confirming the failure to fulfill their responsibilities.

3. Compensation costs include incurred expenses (including attorney fees), judgment costs, fines, and any payments actually incurred or considered reasonable in resolving these cases within the framework of the law. The Company may purchase insurance for such persons to avoid the above compensation liabilities.

CHAPTER IV

RIGHT TO INSPECT COMPANY BOOKS AND RECORDS

Article 49. Dividends

1. According to the decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders and in accordance with the law, dividends shall be declared and paid from the Company's retained earnings but shall not exceed the level proposed by the Board of Directors and approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

2. The Board of Directors may decide to make an interim dividend if it considers that such payment is consistent with the Company's profitability.

3. The Company shall not pay interest on dividend payments or any payments related to a class of shares.

4. The Board of Directors may propose that the General Meeting of Shareholders approve the payment of dividends in whole or in part by shares, and the Board of Directors shall be the body responsible for implementing this resolution. The order and procedures for paying dividends in shares shall be carried out in accordance with the Law on Enterprises and relevant legal regulations.

5. In cases where dividends or other payments related to a type of share are paid in cash, the Company shall make the payment in Vietnamese Dong or through banks based on the bank account details provided by the shareholder. If the Company has transferred the funds according to the correct bank details provided by the shareholder but the shareholder does not receive the money, the Company shall not be responsible for the transferred amount. The payment of dividends for listed shares or shares registered for trading on the Stock Exchange may be carried out through securities companies or the Vietnam Securities Depository.

6. Pursuant to the Law on Enterprises and the Law on Securities, the Board of Directors shall pass a resolution to determine a specific record date for finalizing the list of shareholders. Based on this date, individuals registered as shareholders or holders of other securities shall be entitled to receive dividends, interest, profit distribution, shares, notifications, or other documents.

7. Other matters related to profit distribution shall be carried out in accordance with the provisions of the law.

CHAPTER VII
