IV. APPLIED ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1. Basis for preparing Financial Statements

Financial statements are presented on the 'at cost' principle.

2. Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand, bank deposits, money in transit, and short-term investments with a maturity of three months or less from the date of purchase, which are readily convertible to a known amount of cash and subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

3. Trade receivables and other receivables, provision for doubtful debts

Trade receivables and other receivables are recognized based on invoices and supporting documents.

The provision for doubtful debts is established based on an assessment of the recoverability of each receivable.

The provision for doubtful debts is made for each receivable based on the aging of overdue debts or the estimated potential loss, as follows:

- For overdue receivables:
 - 30% of the value for receivables overdue from 6 months to less than 1 year.
 - 50% of the value for receivables overdue from 1 year to less than 2 years.
 - 70% of the value for receivables overdue from 2 years to less than 3 years.
 - 100% of the value for receivables overdue for more than 3 years.
- For receivables not yet overdue but difficult to collect: the provision is based on the estimated potential loss.

4. Investments

Inventories are measured at cost. The cost of inventories includes purchase costs, processing costs, and other directly attributable costs incurred to bring the inventories to their current location and condition.

Cost is determined on a weighted average basis and The company applies the perpetual method of accounting for inventories.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT Quarter I/2025

Notes to the financial statements (continued)

Provision for devaluation of inventories are recognized when the cost exceeds the net realizable value. The net realizable value is the estimated selling price of the inventory less the estimated costs to complete the product and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

5. Tangible fixed assets

Tangible fixed assets are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. The cost of fixed assets acquired through purchase and construction transfer includes all expenses that the Company incurs to acquire the asset until it is ready for use. Subsequent costs are only capitalized as part of the asset's cost if they are certain to increase future economic benefits from the use of the asset. Costs that do not meet these conditions are recognized as expenses in the period incurred.

When tangible fixed assets are sold or retired, the original cost and accumulated depreciation are written off, and any gain or loss arising from the disposal is recognized as income or expense in the period.

Depreciation is computed on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of tangible fixed assets. The estimated useful lives are as follows:

Type of fixed assets:	Years
Buildings and structures	05 – 25
Machinery and equipment	03 – 10
Motor vehicles	06 – 08
office equipment	03 – 05

6. Intangible fixed assets

Land use rights

Land use rights represent all actual costs incurred by the Company directly related to the land, including: the amount spent to acquire the land use rights, compensation costs, site clearance, land leveling, and registration fees. Land use rights with a limited term are amortized over the usage period. Land use rights with an indefinite term are not amortized.

Software

Computer software represents all costs incurred by the Company up to the point the software is put into use. Computer software is amortized over a period of 3 to 5 years.

7. Operating lease assets

Leases assets are classified as operating leases if the majority of the risks and benefits associated with ownership of the asset are retained by the lessor. Operating lease expenses are recognized as expenses on a straight-line basis over the lease term, regardless of the lease payment method.

8. Construction in progress.

Construction in progress is presented at cost, including costs related to repair, renovation, upgrading, and the construction of new factory buildings of the Company.

9. Borrowing Costs

Borrowing costs are recognized as expenses in the period incurred. In cases where borrowing costs are directly related to the investment in construction or production of unfinished products that require a sufficiently long period (over 12 months) to be ready for use as intended or to be sold, such borrowing costs are capitalized.

For general loans, including those used for construction or production of unfinished products, the capitalized borrowing costs are determined based on the capitalization rate for the weighted average accumulated costs incurred for construction or production of the asset. The capitalization rate is calculated based on the weighted average interest rate of loans outstanding during the period, excluding specific loans used for the purpose of forming a specific asset.

10. Long-term Prepaid Expenses

Tools and Equipment

Tools and equipment that have been put into use are amortized as expenses over the period using the straight-line method, with the amortization period not exceeding 36 months.

Other Long-term Prepaid Expenses.

Other long-term prepaid expenses are amortized as expenses over the period using the straight-line method, with the amortization period not exceeding 36 months.

11. Trade Payables and Other Payables

Trade payables and other payables are recognized based on invoices and supporting documents.

12. Accrued Expenses

Accrued expenses are recognized based on reasonable estimates of the amounts owed for goods and services consumed during the period.

13. Owner's Equity – Funds

The Company's business capital is the investment capital from shareholders, recognized based on the capital contributed by the shareholders.

Funds are established and used according to the Company's charter.

14. Treasury Shares

When shares of the Company's equity are repurchased, the payment amount, including related transaction costs, is recognized as treasury shares and reflected as a deduction in equity.

15. Dividends

Current income tax is calculated based on taxable income for the period at the tax rate applicable at the end of the period. Taxable income differs from accounting profit due to adjustments for temporary differences between tax and accounting as well as income and expenses that are either non-taxable or non-deductible.

Deferred income tax represents income tax that will be paid or refunded due to temporary differences between the carrying amount of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for tax purposes. Deferred tax liabilities are recognized for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are only recognized when it is certain that there will be taxable income in the future to use these temporary differences.

The carrying amount of deferred income tax assets is reviewed at the end of the fiscal year and adjusted to ensure that there is sufficient taxable income to utilize all or part of the deferred tax assets.

In 2011, the Company invested in a project in a difficult economic region (with investment certificate No. 17121000095 issued by the People's Committee of Thai Nguyen province on October 11, 2011). The Company determines its investment incentives under Decree No. 108/2006/ND-CP dated September 22, 2006 and Decree No. 124/2008/ND-CP dated December 11, 2008 as follows:

According to Article 15, Item 4, and Article 16, Item 3, Chapter IV of Decree 124/2008/ND-CP, the preferential tax rate is 20% for 10 years, tax exemption for 2 years, and a 50% reduction of payable tax for the following 4 years from when taxable income is generated.

According to Article 20, Item 2, Chapter V of Decree 218/2013/ND-CP, it is specified that, by the end of the 2015 tax period, businesses with investment projects applying a preferential tax rate of 20%, as defined in Clause 3, Article 15 of this Decree, will be subject to a 17% tax rate from January 1, 2016, for the remaining period.

Since 2019, TDI Investment and Development Joint Stock Company – Diem Thuy has applied a corporate income tax rate of 17% for the remaining preferential tax period.

In 2019, TDI Investment and Development Joint Stock Company – TDI Dai Tu Branch, under an investment project located in a particularly difficult economic area as per Decree No. 118/2015/ND-CP, is exempt from tax for the first 4 years and enjoys a 50% tax reduction for the following 9 years.

According to Clause 1, Article 11, Circular 96/2015/TT-BTC, the preferential tax rate of 10% applies for 15 years on income derived from new investment projects in especially difficult socio-economic areas. From 2024, TDT Investment and Development Joint Stock Company – Dai Tu Branch will apply a 5% tax rate for 9 years, and for the following 2 years, the corporate income tax rate will be 10%.

The determination of the Company's income tax is based on current tax regulations. However, these regulations change over time, and the final determination of corporate income tax depends on the results of inspections by the tax authorities.

17. Revenue Recognition Principles

When providing services, revenue is recognized when there are no significant uncertainties related to payment or associated costs.

Interest income is recognized on an accrual basis, determined by the balance of deposit accounts and the applicable interest rate.

Dividends and profits to be distributed are recognized when the contributing parties have the right to receive profits from their investment. Interest from other investments is recognized when the Company has the right to receive the interest.

Thai Nguyen, April 19th, 2025

“Re: Explanation of the decrease in profit in Q1/2025 compared to the same period in 2024”

To: - State Securities Commission of Vietnam.

- Hanoi Stock Exchange (HNX)

Under Circular No. 96/2020/TT-BTC dated November 16, 2020, issued by the Ministry of Finance, which provides guidance on information disclosure on the securities market, and explanation when the after-tax profit of a company between quarters in the disclosed period fluctuates by 10% or more compared to the same period of the previous year or when the business results show a loss.

In this regard, TDT Investment and Development Joint Stock Company (TDT) would like to explain the fluctuation of after-tax profit in the first quarter of 2025 compared to the same period in 2024, as presented in the Company's financial statements as follows:

1. Comparison table of revenue and profit between Quarter I/2025 and Quarter I/2024

Items	Quarter I/2025	Quarter I/2024	Change (%)
Revenue from sales of goods and rendering of services	98,291,096,807	73,449,435,526	134%
Finance income	1,549,213,852	2,373,541,286	(35%)
Financial expenses	4,712,662,173	4,572,513,562	103%
Selling expenses	2,593,081,610	1,802,464,140	144%
Share of loss in associates and joint ventures	21,239,001,155	16,050,106,756	132%
Other income	352,118,734	147,097,941	239%
Other expenses	255,665,885	6,917,418	3696%
Net profit after tax	448,430,247	172,562,402	260%

Compared to Q1/2024, the net profit after tax of TDT Investment and Development Joint Stock Company (TDT) in Q1/2025 increased by 260%.

2. Reasons:

- Due to a 134% increase in revenue from sales of goods and rendering of services in Q1/2025 compared to the same period in 2024
- Financial expenses in Q1/2025 decreased slightly by 103% compared to Q1/2024
- Share of loss in associates and joint ventures in Q1/2025 increased by 132% compared to Q1/2023.
- Selling expenses in Q1/2025 rose about 144% compared to Q1/2024.
- Other income in Q1/2025 grew significantly to 239% compared to Q1/2024.
- The company has not recorded revenue in this period because the completed orders have not yet been delivered to customers. Therefore, Revenue will be recognized in the second and third quarters of 2025. Input costs and payments to employees have continued to be maintained.

TDT Investment and Development Joint Stock Company commits that the information in this explanation is truthful and accurate.
