q) Decide to repurchase more than 10% of the total shares sold of each type;

r) The corporation signing contracts or transactions with entities as stipulated in Clause 1, Article 167 of the Enterprise Law, valued at or above 35% of the total assets of the corporation as recorded in the most recent financial report;

s) Approve transactions as stipulated in Clause 4, Article 293 of Decree No. 155/2020/ND-CP dated December 31, 2020 of the Government detailing the implementation of certain provisions of the Securities Law;

t) Approve the internal governance regulations of the corporation, the operating regulations of the Board of Directors, and the operating regulations of the Board of Supervisors;

u) Other issues as prescribed by law and this Charter.

3. All resolutions and matters included in the meeting agenda must be discussed and voted on at the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 15. Authorization to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Shareholders, or authorized representatives of shareholder organizations, may attend the General Meeting of Shareholders directly or may authorize one or more individuals or organizations to attend the meeting, or attend the meeting through one of the forms specified in Clause 3, Article 144 of the Enterprise Law.

2. The authorization of an individual or organization to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders as stipulated in Clause 1 of this Article must be made in writing. The authorization document must comply with civil law regulations and must specify the shareholder's name, the name of the authorized individual or organization, the number of shares authorized, the content and scope of the authorization, the duration of the authorization, and the signatures of both the authorizing party and the authorized representative.

The authorized person attending the General Meeting of Shareholders must submit the authorization document when registering to attend. If there is a re-authorization, the attendee must also present the initial authorization document of the shareholder or the shareholder representative organization (if it has not been previously registered with the corporation).

If more than one authorized representative is appointed to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders, the number of shares and voting rights of each authorized representative must be clearly specified and follow these regulations:

Shareholders owning less than 10% of the total common shares may authorize one (1) person; Shareholders owning from 10% to less than 20% of the total common shares may authorize a maximum of two (2) persons; Shareholders owning from 20% to less than 30% of the total common shares may authorize a maximum of three (3) persons; Shareholders owning from 30% to less than 40% of the total common shares may authorize a maximum of four (4) persons; Shareholders owning from 40% to 50% of the total common shares may authorize a maximum of five (5) persons; Shareholders owning more than 50% of the total common shares may authorize a maximum of six (6) persons to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders.

3. The voting rights of an authorized representative attending the meeting within the scope of their authorization will remain valid in the following cases, except for the following:

- a) The shareholder who gave the authorization has died, or their legal capacity is restricted or lost;
- b) The shareholder who gave the authorization has revoked the authorization;
- c) The shareholder who gave the authorization has revoked the authority of the representative.

This clause does not apply if the corporation receives notice of any of the events mentioned above before the opening of the General Meeting of Shareholders or before the meeting is reconvened.

Article 16. Changes in rights

1. Any change or cancellation of special rights attached to a class of preferred shares shall take effect when approved by shareholders representing 65% or more of the total voting shares of all shareholders attending and voting at the meeting in favor. A resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders on matters that adversely affect the rights and obligations of holders of preferred shares shall only be passed if it is approved by shareholders holding at least 75% of the total number of such preferred shares attending and voting at the meeting in favor, or by shareholders holding at least 75% of the total number of such preferred shares voting in favor in case the resolution is adopted in the form of written consultation.

2. The meeting of shareholders holding a specific class of preferred shares to approve changes to their rights will be valid only if at least two (02) shareholders (or their authorized representatives) holding at least one-third (1/3) of the total par value of the issued shares of that class are present. If the required number of representatives is not met, the meeting will be reconvened within thirty (30) days, and the shareholders holding that class of shares (regardless of the number of persons and shares) who are present either directly or through authorized representatives will be considered sufficient for quorum. At such meetings, shareholders holding that class of shares present directly or through representatives may request a secret ballot. Each share of the same type will have equal voting rights at these meetings.

3. The procedure for conducting such separate meetings shall follow the provisions in Articles 18, 19, and 20 of this Charter.

4. Unless otherwise stipulated in the share issuance terms, the special rights associated with the classes of preferred shares regarding certain or all matters related to the distribution of profits or assets of the corporation will not be altered when the corporation issues additional shares of the same class.

Article 17. Convening, agenda, and notice of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The Board of Directors shall convene the Annual and Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders. The Board of Directors shall convene the Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders in cases as specified in Clause 3, Article 13 of this Charter.

2. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders must perform the following tasks:

a) Prepare a list of shareholders eligible to attend and vote at the General Assembly. The list of shareholders eligible to attend the General Assembly must be prepared no later than ten (10) days before the notice of the meeting is sent out. The corporation must announce information about the preparation of the list of shareholders entitled to attend the General Assembly at least twenty (20) days before the final registration date;

b) Prepare the agenda and content of the meeting;

c) Prepare materials for the meeting;

d) Draft the resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders based on the proposed agenda;

e) Determine the time and venue for the meeting;

f) Notify and send the invitation to attend the General Assembly to all shareholders entitled to attend;

g) Other tasks to serve the meeting.

3. The notice of the General Assembly must be sent to all shareholders in a manner that ensures delivery to the shareholder's contact address. The notice must also be posted on the corporation's website and on the website of the State Securities Commission and the Stock Exchange where the corporation's shares are listed or registered for trading. The convener of the General Assembly must send the notice to all shareholders on the list of eligible attendees no later than twenty-one (21) days before the meeting date (from the date the notice is sent or validly dispatched). The agenda of the General Assembly, along with related documents on the matters to be voted on, must be sent to shareholders or posted on the corporation's website. In case the documents are not sent with the meeting notice, the notice must provide a link to access the full meeting materials, including:

a) The agenda of the meeting and materials to be used during the meeting;

b) The list and detailed information of candidates in case of electing members of the Board of Directors or the Board of Supervisors;

c) Voting ballots;

d) The proxy form for representatives attending the meeting;

e) Draft resolutions on each item of the agenda.

4. Shareholders or groups of shareholders as defined in Clause 2, Article 11 of this Charter have the right to propose matters to be included in the agenda of the General Assembly. The proposal must be in writing and sent to the corporation no later than three (03) business days before the meeting date. The proposal must specify the name of the shareholder, the number of shares of each type owned by the shareholder, and the matter being proposed for inclusion in the agenda.

5. The convener of the General Assembly has the right to reject proposals as stipulated in Clause 4 of this Article if any of the following conditions are met:

- a) The proposal is submitted incorrectly as per the regulations in Clause 4 of this Article;
- b) At the time of submission, the shareholder or group of shareholders does not hold at least 5% of common shares as specified in Clause 2, Article 11 of this Charter;
- c) The proposed matter is beyond the authority of the General Assembly;
- d) Other cases as specified by law and this Charter.

6. The convener of the General Assembly must accept and include proposals as stipulated in Clause 4 of this Article in the proposed agenda and meeting content, unless specified in Clause 5 of this Article. The proposal will be officially included in the agenda and content of the meeting if approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 18. Conditions for holding the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall be validly held when the shareholders present represent more than 50% of the total voting shares.

2. If the first meeting does not meet the requirements for holding the meeting as specified in Clause 1 of this Article, a second notice of the meeting must be sent within thirty (30) days from the date of the intended first meeting. The second meeting shall be validly held when the shareholders present represent at least 33% of the total voting shares.

3. If the second meeting does not meet the requirements for holding the meeting as specified in Clause 2 of this Article, a third notice of the meeting must be sent within twenty (20) days from the date of the intended second meeting. The third meeting shall be held regardless of the total voting shares of the shareholders present.

Article 19. Procedures for holding and voting at the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Before the meeting begins, the Corporation must conduct the procedure for shareholder registration, and registration must continue until all shareholders entitled to attend the meeting have registered, following the process below:

a) During registration, the Corporation will issue a voting card for each shareholder or proxy with voting rights, indicating the registration number, the shareholder's name, the name of the proxy, and the number of votes the shareholder holds. The General Meeting of Shareholders will discuss and vote on each issue in the agenda. Voting will be conducted by agreeing, disagreeing, or abstaining. The voting cards for agreeing with the resolution will be collected first, followed by those disagreeing, and finally, the total votes will be counted to decide the outcome. The result of the vote will be announced by the Chairperson before the meeting is adjourned. The General Assembly will elect the vote counters or supervisors based on the Chairperson's proposal. The number of members in the vote-counting committee will be decided by the General Assembly based on the Chairperson's proposal.

b) Shareholders or proxies arriving after the meeting has started have the right to register and participate in voting immediately after registration. The Chairperson is not obliged to halt the meeting for late arrivals, and the validity of issues previously voted on will not be altered.

2. The election of the Chairperson, Secretary, and vote-counting committee is as follows:

a) The Chairman of the Board of Directors will act as the Chairperson or delegate another member of the Board to be the Chairperson of the meeting. If the Chairman is absent or temporarily unable to work, the remaining Board members will elect a Chairperson by majority vote. If no Chairperson can be elected, the Head of the Board of Supervisors will preside over the meeting and the General Assembly will elect a Chairperson from among the attendees, with the person receiving the highest number of votes becoming the Chairperson.

b) Except as stipulated in item (a), the person who signed the notice to convene the meeting will preside over the meeting and the General Assembly will elect the Chairperson, with the person receiving the highest number of votes becoming the Chairperson.

c) The Chairperson will appoint one or more individuals as the meeting's secretary.

d) The General Assembly will elect one or more members for the vote-counting committee based on the Chairperson's proposal.

3. The program and agenda of the meeting must be approved by the General Assembly at the opening session. The program should specify the time allocated for each issue on the agenda.

4. The Chairperson has the authority to take necessary and reasonable measures to conduct the meeting in an orderly manner, in accordance with the approved agenda and reflecting the will of the majority of the attendees:

a) Arranging seating at the meeting venue;

b) Ensuring safety for all participants;

c) Facilitating shareholders' attendance (or continued attendance) at the meeting. The person convening the meeting has full authority to change the above measures and implement any necessary actions. These measures may include issuing entry passes or using other selection methods.

5. The General Assembly will discuss and vote on each issue on the agenda. Voting will be conducted by agreeing, disagreeing, or abstaining. The result of the vote will be announced by the Chairperson before the meeting is adjourned.

6. Shareholders or proxies arriving after the meeting has started may register and participate in voting immediately after registration. In this case, the validity of previously voted issues will not change.

7. The person convening or the Chairperson has the following rights: a) To require all attendees to undergo checks or other legal, reasonable security measures; b) To request authorities to maintain order during the meeting, expelling those who do not comply with the Chairperson's authority, intentionally disrupt the order, obstruct the smooth progress of the meeting, or refuse to comply with security checks.

8. The Chairperson may postpone the meeting if the required number of registered participants has been met, but not for more than three (03) working days from the planned start date. The meeting can only be postponed or the venue changed in the following cases:

- a) The meeting venue does not have enough seating for all participants;
- b) Communication facilities at the venue are insufficient for shareholders to participate in discussions and voting; c) Attendees disrupt the meeting, potentially preventing it from being held fairly and legally.

9. If the Chairperson postpones or suspends the meeting in violation of Clause 8, the General Assembly will elect a new Chairperson from among the attendees to manage the meeting until it concludes. All resolutions passed during that meeting will be legally effective.

10. The meeting of the General Assembly can be conducted in an online format or a combination of online and in-person attendance, or by gathering shareholder opinions in writing to pass resolutions. The conditions, authority, and procedural steps for holding an online or hybrid meeting are specified in the Corporation's internal governance regulations.

Article 20. Conditions for the adoption of resolutions by the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Resolutions on the following issues shall be adopted if they are approved by shareholders representing at least 65% of the total voting shares of all shareholders attending and voting at the meeting in favor, unless specified in clauses 3, 4, and 5 of this Article:

- a) The types of shares and the total number of shares for each type;
- b) Changes to the business sector, field, or industry;
- c) Changes to the organizational structure of the Corporation;
- d) Investment projects or the sale of assets worth 35% or more of the total assets as recorded in the Corporation's most recent financial report;
- e) The restructuring or dissolution of the Corporation;
- f) Other matters as specified in the Corporation's charter.

2. Resolutions shall be adopted if approved by shareholders representing more than 50% of the total voting shares of all shareholders attending and voting at the meeting, unless specified in clauses 1, 3, 4, and 5 of this Article.

3. Voting for the election of members of the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors must be conducted using cumulative voting, where each shareholder's total votes correspond to the total number of shares they hold multiplied by the number of members to be elected to the Board of Directors or Board of Supervisors. Shareholders may allocate all or part of their votes to one or more candidates. The elected members of the Board of Directors or Board of Supervisors will be determined based on the highest number of votes, starting from the candidate with the most votes until the required number of members as specified in the Corporation's charter. In case two or more candidates receive an equal number of votes for the last position on the Board of Directors or Board of Supervisors, a re-election will be conducted among the candidates with equal votes, or a selection will be made according to the criteria specified in the election rules or the Corporation's charter.

4. If a resolution is passed via written consent, the resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be adopted if approved by shareholders representing more than 50% of the total voting shares of all shareholders entitled to vote.

5. Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders on issues that adversely affect the rights and obligations of shareholders holding preferential shares shall only be adopted if approved by shareholders holding at least 75% of the total preferential shares of that type attending and voting at the meeting, or by shareholders holding at least 75% of the total preferential shares of that type voting in favor in the case of a written consent process.

6. Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders passed by 100% of the total voting shares are valid and effective, even if the procedures for convening the meeting and passing the resolution violate the provisions of the Enterprise Law or the Corporation's charter.

Article 21. Authority and procedure for obtaining Shareholders' opinions in writing for passing resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The Board of Directors has the authority to obtain shareholders' opinions in writing to pass a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders when it deems necessary for the benefit of the Corporation, except in the following cases:

- a) Amendments or supplements to the Corporation's charter;
- b) Strategic development directions for the Corporation;
- c) Types of shares and the total number of shares for each type;
- d) Election, dismissal, or removal of members of the Board of Directors and Board of Supervisors;
- e) Decisions on investments or the sale of assets worth 35% or more of the total assets as recorded in the Corporation's most recent financial report;
- f) Approval of the annual financial statements;
- g) Restructuring or dissolution of the company.

2. The Board of Directors must prepare the opinion solicitation form, the draft resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders, explanatory documents for the draft resolution, and send them to all shareholders entitled to vote at least ten (10) days before the deadline for submitting the opinion solicitation form. The request and method of sending the opinion solicitation form and accompanying documents must comply with the regulations in Clause 3, Article 17 of this Charter.

3. The opinion solicitation form must include the following essential information:

- a) Name, head office address, business registration number;

b) The purpose of the opinion solicitation;

c) Name, contact address, nationality, and legal document number for individual shareholders; or for organizational shareholders, the company name, business registration number or legal document number, and address of the head office, or the name, contact address, nationality, and legal document number of the representative of the organizational shareholder; the number of shares for each type and the number of voting rights of the shareholder;

d) The issue(s) for which the opinion is being solicited to pass the resolution;

e) Voting options, including approval, disapproval, and abstention for each issue;

f) Deadline for returning completed opinion forms to the Corporation;

g) The name and signature of the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

4. Shareholders may send the completed opinion solicitation form to the Corporation by mail, fax, or email as follows:

a) In the case of mail, the opinion solicitation form must be signed by the individual shareholder, the authorized representative, or the legal representative of the organizational shareholder. The form must be sealed in an envelope, and no one may open it before the vote counting;

b) In the case of fax or email, the opinion solicitation form must remain confidential until the vote counting;

c) Any opinion solicitation forms received after the specified deadline or those that have been opened (in the case of mail) or disclosed (in the case of fax or email) are invalid. Opinion solicitation forms that are not submitted will be considered as abstentions.

5. The Board of Directors shall count the votes and prepare the vote counting minutes under the supervision of the Board of Supervisors or shareholders not holding management positions in the Corporation. The vote counting minutes must include the following key details:

a) Name, head office address, business registration number;

b) The purpose and issues for which opinions are solicited to pass the resolution;

c) The number of shareholders who participated in voting, with a breakdown of valid and invalid votes and the method of sending the votes, along with an appendix listing the shareholders who participated in the vote;

d) The total number of votes for, against, and abstentions for each issue;

e) The issues that were passed and the corresponding approval percentage;

f) The name, signature of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the vote counters, and the supervisors of the vote counting. The members of the Board of Directors, the vote counters, and the supervisors of the vote counting must bear joint responsibility for the accuracy and integrity of the vote counting minutes and for any damages arising from resolutions passed due to inaccurate or dishonest vote counting.

6. The vote counting minutes and the adopted resolution must be sent to shareholders within fifteen (15) days from the completion of the vote counting. The minutes and resolution may also be posted on the Corporation's website within twenty-four (24) hours from the completion of the vote counting.

7. The completed opinion solicitation forms, vote counting minutes, adopted resolutions, and related documents sent along with the opinion solicitation forms must be kept at the Corporation's headquarters.

8. A resolution passed by obtaining shareholders' opinions in writing shall be valid if it is approved by shareholders representing more than 50% of the total voting shares of all shareholders entitled to vote and shall have the same effect as a resolution passed at the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 22. Resolutions and meeting minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. A meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders must be recorded in minutes and may be recorded audibly or stored in another electronic form. The minutes must be prepared in Vietnamese, and may also be prepared in a foreign language, and must contain the following key information:

- a) Name, head office address, business registration number;
- b) Time and location of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
- c) Meeting agenda and content of the meeting;
- d) Names of the Chairman and the Secretary;
- e) A summary of the meeting proceedings and the opinions expressed at the General Meeting of Shareholders regarding each issue in the agenda;
- f) The number of shareholders and the total number of voting shares of the shareholders present, with an appendix listing the registered shareholders, their representatives, the number of shares, and the corresponding number of votes;
- g) The total number of votes for each issue being voted on, specifying the voting method, the total number of valid and invalid votes, as well as the votes in favor, against, and abstentions; corresponding percentages of the total votes cast by shareholders attending the meeting;
- h) The issues that were passed and the corresponding percentage of approval votes;
- i) Names and signatures of the Chairman and the Secretary. If the Chairman or the Secretary refuses to sign the minutes, the minutes will still be valid if signed by all other members of the Board of Directors who attended the meeting, and if the content complies with the regulations in this clause. The minutes must specify the refusal of the Chairman or Secretary to sign.

2. The minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders must be completed and approved before the end of the meeting. The Chairman, the Secretary, or any other person signing the minutes will be jointly responsible for the accuracy and truthfulness of the contents of the minutes.

3. The minutes, whether in Vietnamese or a foreign language, have equal legal validity. In case of any discrepancies between the Vietnamese version and the foreign language version, the Vietnamese version shall prevail.

4. The resolutions, minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders, the list of registered shareholders with their signatures, the authorization documents for attending the meeting, any attached documents (if any), and related documents must be publicly disclosed according to the regulations on information disclosure in the securities market and must be stored at the Corporation's headquarters.

Article 23. Request for annulment of the resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders Within ninety (90) days from the date of receipt of the resolution or the minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders, or the minutes of the vote-counting results of the General Meeting of Shareholders' written consultation, shareholders or groups of shareholders as stipulated in Clause 2, Article 11 of this Charter shall have the right to request a Court or Arbitration body to review and annul the resolution or part of the resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders in the following cases:

1. The order and procedures for convening the meeting and adopting the resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders seriously violate the provisions of the Law on Enterprises and this Charter, except as provided in Clause 6, Article 20 of this Charter.

2. The contents of the resolution violate the law or this Charter.

VII. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Article 24. Nomination and candidacy of members of the Board of Directors

1. If the candidates for the Board of Directors have been identified, the Corporation must publicly disclose relevant information about the candidates at least ten (10) days before the opening of the General Meeting of Shareholders on the Corporation's official website so that shareholders can review the candidates before voting. The candidates for the Board of Directors must provide a written commitment about the truthfulness and accuracy of the disclosed personal information and commit to performing their duties honestly, carefully, and for the best interest of the Corporation if elected as a Board member. The information about candidates for the Board of Directors to be disclosed includes:

- a) Full name, date of birth;
- b) Professional qualifications;
- c) Work history;
- d) Other managerial positions (including Board positions in other companies);
- e) Benefits related to the Corporation and its related parties;
- f) Other information (if any) as stipulated in the Corporation's charter;
- g) Public companies must disclose information about other companies where the candidate holds Board positions, other managerial positions, and any interests related to the Corporation (if applicable).

2. Shareholders or groups of ordinary shareholders have the right to combine their voting rights to nominate candidates for the Board of Directors as follows: Shareholders or shareholder groups owning from 10% to less than 20% of the total voting shares can nominate one (01) candidate; from 20% to less than 30% of the total voting shares can nominate up to two (02) candidates; from 30% to less than 40% of the total voting shares can nominate up to four (04) candidates; from 40% to less than 50% of the total voting shares can nominate up to five (05) candidates; from 50% to less than 60% of the total voting shares can nominate up to six (06) candidates; from 60% to less than 70% of the total voting shares can nominate up to seven (07) candidates; from 70% to less than 80% of the total voting shares can nominate up to eight (08) candidates; and from 80% or more of the total voting shares can nominate up to nine (09) candidates.

3. If the number of candidates for the Board of Directors through nominations and elections still does not meet the required number as stipulated in Clause 1 of Article 25 of this Charter, the current Board of Directors must introduce additional candidates or organize further nominations as regulated by the Corporation's charter, internal governance regulations, and the Board of Directors' operational regulations. The introduction of additional candidates by the current Board of Directors must be clearly disclosed before the General Assembly votes to elect the members of the Board of Directors in accordance with the law.

4. Members of the Board of Directors must meet the standards and conditions specified in Clause 1 and Clause 2 of Article 155 of the Enterprise Law and may not simultaneously serve as members of the Board of Directors in more than five (05) other companies.

Article 25. Composition and term of members of the Board of Directors

1. The Board of Directors of the Corporation shall consist of a minimum of five (05) members and a maximum of nine (09) members. The specific number of members for each term shall be decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

2. The term of a Board member shall not exceed five (05) years and may be re-elected for an unlimited number of terms. However, an individual can only be elected as an independent Board member for a maximum of two consecutive terms. If all Board members' terms end simultaneously, those members shall continue as Board members until new members are elected to replace them and take over the work.

3. The composition of the Board of Directors is as follows:

The composition of the Board of Directors in a public Corporation must ensure that at least one-third (1/3) of the total number of Board members are non-executive members. The Corporation should limit the number of Board members who concurrently hold executive positions in the Corporation to ensure the Board's independence.

4. A Board member shall cease to be a Board member in the following cases:

a) The member no longer meets the qualifications to be a Board member as stipulated by the Enterprise Law, this Charter, or is legally prohibited from being a Board member;

b) The member submits a written resignation to the Corporation's headquarters, and it is accepted;

c) The member does not participate in Board activities for six (06) consecutive months without approval from the Board, and the Board decides that their position is vacant, except in cases of force majeure;

d) The Board member's civil capacity is restricted, or they lose their civil capacity, or there are difficulties in their ability to comprehend or control their actions, and other Board members have professional evidence to prove this;

e) The member is dismissed according to a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders;

f) The member provides false personal information when submitting their candidacy for the Board of Directors; g) Other cases as stipulated by law.

5. The appointment of Board members must be publicly disclosed according to the regulations on information disclosure in the securities market.

6. Board members are not required to be shareholders of the Corporation.

Article 26. Rights and duties of the Board of Directors

1. The Board of Directors is the management body of the Corporation, with full authority to act on behalf of the Corporation to make decisions, exercise the Corporation's rights, and fulfill its obligations, except for those rights and duties that fall under the authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

2. The rights and duties of the Board of Directors are defined by law, the Corporation's Charter, and the General Meeting of Shareholders. Specifically, the Board of Directors has the following rights and duties:

a) Deciding on the strategy, medium-term development plan, and annual business plan of the Corporation;

b) Proposing the type of shares and the total number of shares of each type that can be offered for sale;

c) Deciding on the sale of unsold shares within the limit of shares authorized for sale of each type; deciding on other forms of capital raising;

d) Deciding on the sale price of the Corporation's shares and bonds;

e) Deciding on the buyback of no more than 10% of the total number of shares of each type sold within 12 months. In other cases, the buyback of shares is decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders; deciding on the buyback price. For common shares, the buyback price shall not exceed the market price at the time of buyback;

f) Deciding on investment plans and projects within its competence and according to legal limits;

g) Deciding on market development strategies, marketing, and technology solutions;

h) Approving contracts for purchasing, selling, borrowing, lending, and other contracts or transactions with a value equal to or greater than 35% of the total asset value as recorded in the latest financial report of the Corporation, except for contracts or transactions that fall under the General Meeting of Shareholders' authority as stipulated in point d, Clause 2, Article 138 and Clauses 1 and 3, Article 167 of the Enterprise Law.

Approving contracts and transactions between the Corporation and the following related parties:

- Shareholders, representatives of shareholders who own more than 10% of the common shares of the Corporation, and their related parties;

- Members of the Board of Directors, the General Director, and their related parties;

- Enterprises in which members of the Board of Directors, Board of Supervisors, General Director, and other managers of the Corporation hold positions (must disclose the related interests according to the Enterprise Law).

i) Electing, dismissing, or removing the Chairman of the Board of Directors; appointing, dismissing, signing contracts with, and terminating contracts with the General Director and other key managers as specified in the Corporation's Charter; deciding on their salaries, allowances, bonuses, and other benefits; appointing authorized representatives to attend the Board or General Meeting of Shareholders in other companies, deciding on their remuneration and other benefits;

k) Supervising and directing the General Director and other managers in the daily operation of the Corporation;

l) Deciding on the Corporation's organizational structure, internal management regulations, establishing subsidiaries, branches, representative offices, and investing in or acquiring shares of other enterprises;

m) Reviewing the program and materials for the General Meeting of Shareholders, convening the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders, or taking a vote to approve resolutions;

n) Presenting the audited annual financial report to the General Meeting of Shareholders;

o) Proposing the annual dividend level and deciding on the interim dividend; deciding on the time and procedure for dividend payments or handling losses incurred during business operations;

p) Proposing the restructuring or dissolution of the Corporation; requesting the Corporation's bankruptcy;

q) Deciding on the issuance of the Board's operational regulations, internal governance regulations after being approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders; deciding on the issuance of information disclosure regulations for the Corporation;

r) Other rights and duties as stipulated by the Enterprise Law, the Securities Law, other legal regulations, and the Corporation's Charter.

3. The Board of Directors must report the results of its activities to the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with the provisions of Article 280 of Decree No. 155/2020/ND-CP dated December 31, 2020, which provides detailed guidelines for implementing certain provisions of the Securities Law.

Article 27. Remuneration, bonuses, and other benefits of members of the Board of Directors

1. The Corporation has the right to pay remuneration and bonuses to members of the Board of Directors based on business results and performance.

2. Members of the Board of Directors are entitled to remuneration for their work and bonuses.

Remuneration for work is calculated based on the number of working days required to complete the member's duties and the daily remuneration rate. The Board of Directors estimates the remuneration for each member based on mutual agreement. The total remuneration and bonuses of the Board of Directors are determined by the General Meeting of Shareholders at the annual meeting.

3. The remuneration of each member of the Board of Directors is included in the Corporation's business expenses as stipulated by corporate income tax law, and it must be presented as a separate item in the Corporation's annual financial report. The General Meeting of Shareholders must be informed of this at the annual meeting.

4. A member of the Board of Directors holding an executive position or working in the subcommittees of the Board, or performing other tasks outside the regular duties of a Board member, may receive additional remuneration in the form of a lump sum, salary, commission, profit-sharing, or another form as decided by the Board of Directors.

5. Members of the Board of Directors are entitled to have all travel, accommodation, meals, and other reasonable expenses reimbursed, which they incur while fulfilling their responsibilities as Board members, including expenses incurred attending meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders, the Board of Directors, or Board subcommittees.

6. Members of the Board of Directors may be provided with liability insurance by the Corporation, with the approval of the General Meeting of Shareholders. This insurance does not cover liabilities arising from violations of the law or the Corporation's Charter.

Article 28. Chairman of the Board of Directors

1. The Chairman of the Board of Directors is elected, dismissed, and removed by the Board of Directors from among its members.

2. The Chairman of the Board of Directors cannot concurrently hold the position of General Director.

3. The Chairman of the Board of Directors has the following rights and obligations:

- a) Develop the program and work plan for the Board of Directors;
- b) Prepare the agenda, content, and materials for meetings; convene, preside over, and chair Board meetings;
- c) Organize the adoption of resolutions and decisions of the Board of Directors;
- d) Supervise the implementation of the resolutions and decisions of the Board of Directors;
- e) Chair the meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
- f) Other rights and obligations as prescribed by the Law on Enterprises and the Corporation's Charter.

4. In case the Chairman of the Board of Directors submits a resignation letter or is dismissed or removed from office, the Board of Directors must elect a replacement within ten (10) days from the date of receiving the resignation letter or the decision on dismissal or removal.

5. In the case where the Chairman of the Board of Directors is absent or unable to perform their duties, they must delegate their rights and obligations in writing to another member according to the principles outlined in the Corporation's Charter. If no one is authorized, or if the Chairman of the Board of Directors passes away, goes missing, is temporarily detained, serving a prison sentence, undergoing administrative measures in a compulsory rehabilitation facility or a compulsory educational facility, escapes from residence, has their civil capacity restricted or lost, experiences difficulty in perception or control of actions, or is banned from holding a position or performing certain jobs by a court, the remaining members shall elect a new Chairman from among themselves based on the majority consent of the remaining members until a new decision is made by the Board of Directors.

Article 29. Meetings of the Board of Directors

1. The Chairman of the Board of Directors is elected during the first meeting of the Board of Directors within seven (07) working days from the conclusion of the Board's election. This meeting is convened and chaired by the member with the highest number of votes or the highest voting percentage. In the case of a tie in the highest votes or percentage, the members will elect one person by majority to convene the Board meeting.

2. The Board of Directors must meet at least once every quarter and may hold extraordinary meetings.

3. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall convene a meeting of the Board in the following cases: a) At the request of the Board of Supervisors or an independent member of the Board of Directors; b) At the request of the General Director or at least five (05) other executives; c) At the request of at least two (02) members of the Board of Directors.

4. Requests specified in Clause 3 of this Article must be made in writing, stating the purpose, the issues to be discussed, and decisions that fall under the authority of the Board of Directors.

5. The Chairman of the Board of Directors must convene a meeting of the Board within seven (07) working days from the date of receiving the request specified in Clause 3. If the Chairman fails to convene the meeting, they will be held responsible for any damage to the Corporation, and the requesting party has the right to replace the Chairman in convening the meeting.

6. The Chairman of the Board or the person who convenes the meeting must send out the notice of the meeting at least three (03) working days before the meeting date. The notice must specify the time, location, agenda, and issues for discussion and decision. The notice must include the materials for the meeting and the voting ballots for members.

The notice can be sent by invitation letter, phone, fax, electronic means, or other methods as prescribed by the Corporation's Charter, ensuring it reaches the contact address of each Board member registered with the Corporation.

7. The Chairman of the Board or the person convening the meeting must send the meeting notice and accompanying materials to the members of the Board of Supervisors in the same manner as to the Board members. Members of the Board of Supervisors have the right to attend Board meetings, discuss but cannot vote.

8. A meeting of the Board of Directors is valid when at least 3/4 of the total members are present. If the meeting convened as prescribed in this Clause does not meet the required quorum, it must be reconvened within seven (07) days from the intended date of the first meeting. In this case, the meeting is valid if more than half (1/2) of the Board members are present.

9. A Board member is considered to have attended and voted at the meeting in the following cases:

- a) Attending and voting in person at the meeting;
- b) Authorizing another person to attend and vote according to Clause 11 of this Article;
- c) Attending and voting through online meetings, electronic voting, or other electronic means;
